FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PUBLIC INTEREST LAW INITIATIVE WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBER JOHN J. AMBERG

The Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI) has elected John J. Amberg to serve on its Board of Directors. John is the Assistant General Counsel and head of global litigation for Northern Trust Corporation, a leading provider of investment management, asset and fund administration, banking solutions and fiduciary services for corporations, institutions and individuals worldwide. Northern Trust has offices in 18 states and 18 international locations, and more than 15,000 employees. Before joining Northern Trust in 2013, John was the Senior Litigation Counsel at Motorola Solutions, Inc. He had previously served as the Assistant Chief Litigation Counsel for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington D.C., and prior to that was a partner at Kirkland & Ellis LLP in Chicago.

PILI's Board of Directors is currently led by President Lee Ann Russo of Jones Day, and by Vice President Richard F. O'Malley, Jr. of Sidley Austin LLP. See <http://pili.org/board-of-directors> for a full list of PILI's fifty Board Members.

About PILI: PILI's mission is to cultivate a lifelong commitment to public interest law and pro bono service within the Illinois legal community to expand the availability of legal services for people, families and communities in need. PILI envisions a legal community with a deeply rooted culture of service, where law students, lawyers and legal professionals at all stages of their careers engage in public interest law or pro bono work, and remain committed to addressing the unmet legal needs of the poor and underrepresented.
