2016 Pro Bono Service Award Recipient

Jeffrey Krumpe
Miller, Hall & Triggs, LLC

Jeffrey Krumpe has been a pro bono attorney with Prairie State Legal Services since 1995. In that time he has helped with 25 cases and provided 420.5 hours of pro bono service to Prairie State alone. This past year, he was able to make a huge impact in a senior client's life by stopping an unlawful wage garnishment. Not only was Jeff able to stop the garnishment, he also negotiated the return of $2,631.60. Over the years, Jeff has successfully helped numerous clients with unlawful garnishments and subsequent repayments, represented clients in divorces, advised clients on the subjects of liens and foreclosures, and assisted clients in fraud cases through extensive negotiations. The Tenth Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committee is happy to present him with the 2016 Pro Bono Service Award.
