Part V, line 4:
The income from the Endowment is to be used to fund internships for law students in the USA. In the event that the annual income is less than 5% of the value of the principal, then principal may be used to the extent necessary to make up the shortfall in income so that 5% of the fund is available each year.

Part X, Line 2:
FIN 48 Note from Audited Financial Statements:
Public Interest Law Initiative was granted an exemption from federal income tax by the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to the provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). The Organization qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and has been classified as an Organization that is not a private Organization under Section 509(a)(1). The tax- exempt purpose of the Organization and the nature in which it operates is described above. Management believes the Organization operates in compliance with its tax-exempt purpose. Thus, no provision for income tax has been provided for in the financial statements.
The Organization has adopted the requirements for accounting for uncertain tax positions and management has determined that the Organization was not required to record a liability related to uncertain tax positions as of August 31, 2025.
The Organization's annual information and income tax returns filed with the federal and state governments are subject to examination generally for Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Part I, Line 2:
The organization requires each of its grantees to submit an annual report to PILI with verification that it is a public charity and that it maintains an attorney on staff to act as an internship supervisor. A committee selects grantees on a yearly basis and uses widely published selection criteria that include: 1) The quality and depth of supervision provided by the agency to the intern and the supervising attorney's experience and availability; 2) The diversity, quality and type of legal work that will be assigned to the intern; 3) The scope and importance of the work performed by the agency in the field of public interest law; 4) The degree to which the focus of the agency's work is local, as opposed to national; 5) The overall benefits and detriments to PILI's program of adding a particular agency, including the impact on PILI's fundraising and administrative burdens. The organization requires each grantee to submit the resume(s) of the law student intern(s) hired with the organization's funds and the organization meets with the hired interns weekly throughout the internship period. At the end of the grant period, the organization requests a verification that the intern worked the requisite hours. The organization
